THE POSITION

San Joaquin County is seeking an experienced executive to become a key member of the senior management healthcare team. This challenging and unique position will fulfill the Health Resources and Services Administration (HRSA) requirements by performing the duties of Executive Director over eight Federally Qualified Health Center (FQHC) Look-Alike County Clinics, as well as provide administrative oversight over the hospital specialty clinics as the Senior Deputy Director. The position will report to both the San Joaquin General Hospital Chief Executive Officer and the San Joaquin County Clinics Board. Well qualified candidates will have a strong administrative background with an FQHC and large outpatient clinic setting and demonstrate experience with the principles and practices of health care administration including budget and fiscal management; supervision; and organizational structure and program management skills. Candidates must also be well versed with the day to day operational needs and accreditation standards common to FQHC environments and large ambulatory care organizations.

THE COUNTY CLINICS

This position will provide administrative oversight to the County Ambulatory Clinic System which provides approximately 150,000 clinical outpatient visits per year in primary and specialty care. The FQHC-LAL primary care services are located in Stockton, Manteca and French Camp and include: OB/GYN, Pediatric and Adolescent, Family and Primary Medicine clinics. The specialty clinics are located on the campus of San Joaquin General Hospital in French Camp and in Stockton, as listed below:

- ◆ Cardiology
- ◆ Ear, Nose & Throat
- ◆ Employee Health Clinic
- ◆ Gastroenterology
- ◆ Infectious Disease
- * Oncology
- * HIV/AIDS
- ◆ Surgery Clinic
- ◆ Internal Medicine
- * Pulmonary
- ◆ Orthopedics
- * Podiatry
- ◆ Renal Clinic
- ◆ Rheumatology
- ◆ Neurosurgery

EDUCATION

From preschool to higher education, the County has it covered with an abundant array of public or private opportunities to learn and grow. The University of the Pacific, California State University, Stanislaus - Stockton Center, Humphreys College and Law School, National University and the San Joaquin Delta Community College offer a wide variety of choices for educational opportunities.

The county's 17 school districts provide families with a wide choice for children's educational development. Housing is plentiful in San Joaquin County and is affordable when compared to other nearby areas.

Make San Joaquin County your new home. Housing ranges from new developments to historic homes found mostly in central Stockton and downtown Lodi.

San Joaquin County is a place where families can grow, learn, and experience the nature and beauty of the California landscape while benefiting from the unique opportunities - cultural, recreational, and educational - that the area provides.

AGRICULTURE

The county is one of the most agriculturally rich regions in California and is the number one producer, statewide, of asparagus.

Twenty-four thousand acres of county farmland is dedicated to production of this crop. In recent years, the leading crop in the county has been wine grapes, and wineries and vineyards have sprung up from Stockton to Lodi.

A land of beauty, recreation and natural riches, from the waters of the Delta to the numerous grape vineyards, San Joaquin County has it all.

San Joaquin County boasts seven cities and some of the finest opportunities in the state for boating, fishing, camping, history-gathering, or just plain fun in the sun.

Each city, as well as the unincorporated county areas, offers a unique opportunity to enjoy natural California beauty and nature, or music, arts and culture. Whatever your interest, it can most likely be found in San Joaquin County.

ARTS, CULTURE, AND RECREATION

The arts and culture provide a much-needed respite from everyday worries and the Haggin Museum, San Joaquin County Historical Museum, and Stockton Children's Museum are popular spots.

The Stockton Symphony, San Joaquin County Ballet, and Stockton Civic Theater provide important experiences for children and adults. The multi-cultural community offers a diversity of views and opinions in its art and culture, providing a wealth of knowledge about past and present on canvas and stage.

Over 75 languages are spoken within the region and there is richness in the blending of cultures and ways that creates an air of celebration about individual customs, foods and cultures.

San Joaquin County government provides nine community parks for boating, camping, and picnicking, swimming and organized sports.

Annual family events include the Asparagus Festival, attended by thousands of fun-seekers from the County and beyond, held in downtown Stockton.

Individual cities and communities provide a host of other opportunities, from Lodi Lake Park and Nature Area to the Woodbridge Ecological Reserve. The County-owned and operated Micke Grove Park offers a zoo, rides and an historical museum to delight both children and adults. The San Joaquin Delta is one of the area's best kept secrets and offers some of the best boating in the state: more than 1,000 miles of waterways stretching from the Stockton Harbor to north of Sacramento and offering access to the San Francisco Bay.
