This position is exempt from the San Joaquin County Civil Service system. Appointments to exempt positions in San Joaquin County are at-will and not governed by the Civil Service Rules.

THE POSITION

The Chief Deputy Treasurer is primarily responsible for managing investable County, school district, and special district funds which are deposited into the County Treasury, and ensuring their security, liquidity, and yield in a manner consistent with the County Treasurer-Tax Collector's investment policies. The position also assists the Treasurer-Tax Collector and Assistant Treasurer-Tax Collector by providing senior-level administrative and managerial support for other department operations as needed. In all assignments, the incumbent is expected to model a strong work ethic and leadership skills, including accountability to oneself and others.

Typical duties include the following:

- ◆ Executes daily investment transactions ensuring timely settlement of all trades; ensures that all maturity proceeds and periodic interest due are accurately calculated and credited to County bank accounts.
- ◆ Prepares cash flow projections and analyses to determine investable cash and/or operating cash needs; ensures that County bank accounts have sufficient cash balances to meet cash disbursements.
- ◆ Monitors and manages treasury activities and department banking arrangements; reviews account information provided by Treasury staff; analyzes financial data and reports; reviews and analyzes school and special district bond and TRANS documents; studies economic and financial trends and money market conditions to determine various investment opportunities for temporarily idle funds.
- ◆ Keeps informed on current conditions in the capital/credit markets, the projected direction of interest rates, and on legal requirements relating to County investment matters; reviews and analyzes proposed and existing legislation which regulates the investment of public funds, and makes recommendations as to policy implications for the County.
- ◆ Prepares periodic investment reports to the Board of Supervisors and the Treasury Oversight Committee.
- ◆ Serves as a liaison between the Treasury, other County departments, state and local agencies, and the general public; communicates with banks and security dealers in order to be aware of interest rates and special investment opportunities.

"committed to provide an effective, efficient and professional approach in serving taxpayers of our county, and treating all taxpayers fairly and equitably."

SAN JOAQUIN COUNTY

A land of beauty, recreation and natural riches-from the waters of the Delta to the vines of the wine, San Joaquin County has it all. San Joaquin County boasts seven cities and some of the finest opportunities in the state for boating, fishing, camping, history-gathering, or just plain fun in the sun. Each city, as well as the unincorporated county areas, offers a unique opportunity to enjoy natural California beauty and nature, or music, arts and culture. Whatever your interest, it can most likely be found in San Joaquin County.

ARTS, CULTURE, AND RECREATION

The arts and culture provide a much-needed respite from everyday worries and the Haggin Museum, San Joaquin County Historical Museum, and Stockton Children's Museum are popular spots.

The Stockton Symphony and Stockton Civic Theater provide important experiences for children and adults. The multi-cultural community offers a diversity of views and opinions in its art and culture, providing a wealth of knowledge about past and present on canvas and stage.

Over 75 languages are spoken within the region and there is richness in the blending of cultures and ways that creates an air of celebration about individual customs, foods and cultures.

San Joaquin County government provides nine community parks for boating, camping, and picnicking, swimming and organized sports. Annual family events include the Asparagus Festival, attended by thousands of fun-seekers from the county and beyond, held in downtown Stockton.

Individual cities and communities provide a host of other opportunities, from Lodi Lake Park and Nature Area to the Woodbridge Ecological Reserve. The county-owned and operated Micke Grove Park offers a zoo, rides and an historical museum to delight both children and adults. The San Joaquin Delta is one of the area's best kept secrets and offers some of the best boating in the state: more than 1,000 miles of waterways stretching from the Stockton Harbor to north of Sacramento and offering access to the San Francisco Bay.

AGRICULTURE

The county is one of the most agriculturally rich regions in California and is the number one producer, statewide, of asparagus. Twenty-four thousand acres of county farmland is dedicated to production of this crop. In recent years, the leading crop in the county has been wine grapes, and wineries and vineyards have sprung up from Stockton to Lodi.

EDUCATION

From preschool to higher education, the county has it covered with an abundant array of public or private opportunities to learn and grow. The University of the Pacific, California State University, Stanislaus - Stockton Center, Humphreys College and Law School, National University and the San Joaquin Delta Community College offer a wide variety of choices for educational opportunities. The county's 17 school districts provide families with a wide choice for children's educational development.

Housing is plentiful in San Joaquin County and is affordable when compared to other nearby areas.

Make San Joaquin County your new home. Housing ranges from new developments to historic homes found mostly in central Stockton and downtown Lodi.

San Joaquin County is a place where families can grow, learn, and experience the nature and beauty of the California landscape while benefiting from the unique opportunities - cultural, recreational, and educational - that the area provides.
