

SAN JOAQUIN COUNTY HUMAN RESOURCES DIVISION

Personnel Analyst III Classification Unit (Unrepresented)

THE POSITION

The Human Resources Division is seeking an experienced analyst to perform complex professional level public personnel work in the area of classification and compensation. This specialized role will receive direction from the Director and Deputy Director of Human Resources.

The Personnel Analyst III is expected to be a technical expert in the field of classification and compensation for the Human Resources Division and will be the lead on countywide issues relating to these areas. The position will be responsible for researching complaints and grievances related to classification and compensation matters, review countywide new position and classification study budgetary requests, as well as propose salary recommendations on new and existing positions.

THE IDEAL CANDIDATE

This position plays a critical role in the division and must be a collaborative and merit principal based problem solver. The ideal candidate will possess public sector experience directly related to classification and compensation and demonstrate performing such duties with a high level of independence and professional judgement. The position requires in-depth knowledge and experience with job analysis, salary surveys, and strong organizational skills. Candidates must possess excellent oral and written communication skills, which will be used to present complex classification study information to the Civil Service Commission, Board of Supervisors, County Management, and other organizations requesting data relating to County classification and compensation matters.

THE DEPARTMENT

Human Resources is a division of the County Administrator's Office and provides centralized human resources and labor relations services for all County departments. The services include recruitment, exam development, EEO investigations, employee training development programs, administration of County health, dental, workers' compensation, unemployment, casualty, and life insurance programs; deferred compensation, and flexible spending programs. The division also negotiates labor contracts; processes complaints and grievances; conducts meet-and-confer sessions and joint labor management meetings; advises County departments on disciplinary actions and counseling matters; recommends policy and procedures for employer-employee relations; and provides staff support for the Civil Service Commission.
