SAN JOAQUIN COUNTY

A land of beauty, recreation and natural riches - from the waters of the Delta to the vines of the wine, San Joaquin County has it all. San Joaquin County boasts seven cities and some of the finest opportunities in the state for boating, fishing, camping, history-gathering, or just plain fun in the sun. Each city, as well as the unincorporated county areas, offers a unique opportunity to enjoy California beauty and nature, or music, arts and culture. San Joaquin County has what you're looking for.

ARTS & CULTURE

Enrichment and entertainment can be found at many venues throughout the county: the Haggin Museum, San Joaquin County Historical Museum, Children's Museum of Stockton, Stockton Arena, Stockton Symphony, Stockton Civic Theater, Bob Hope Theatre, Lodi's Hutchins Street Square, Tracy's Grand Theater, Concerts in the Park, the local colleges and many galleries. Art, music, dance and theater choices abound.

Over 60 languages are spoken in one of the most ethnically diverse communities in California. A constant celebration of cultures is found in the numerous festivals throughout the year that invite all community members to share food, music, dance, folklore, customs and traditions.

RECREATION

San Joaquin County government operates nine community parks for boating, hiking, camping, picnicking, swimming and organized sports. The Downtown Stockton Arena and Ballpark, local college teams and sports complexes throughout the county provide both athletes and fans the chance to enjoy sporting events.

Enjoy the beauty of Lodi Lake Park and Nature Area and the Woodbridge Ecological Reserve. Micke Grove Park offers a zoo, amusement park, the Japanese Garden and the San Joaquin County Historical Museum to delight both children and adults.

The Sacramento-San Joaquin Delta offers the best boating in the state: more than 1,000 miles of waterways stretching from the Stockton Marina to north of Sacramento and offering access to the San Francisco Bay.

AGRICULTURE

The county is one of the most agriculturally rich regions in California and is the number one producer, statewide, of asparagus. Twenty-four thousand acres of county farmland is dedicated to production of this crop.

Weekly farmers markets throughout the county offer an abundance of fresh fruit and vegetables and artisanal goods. Fruit stands and pick-your-own produce farms dot the countryside. In recent years, the leading crop in the county has been wine grapes. Over 80 wineries within the Lodi Appellation offer opportunities for tasting and special events.

EDUCATION

From preschool to higher education, the county has an abundant array of public or private opportunities to learn and grow. The University of the Pacific, California State University, Stanislaus - Stockton Center, Humphreys College and Law School, and San Joaquin Delta Community College offer a wide variety of educational choices. The county's 17 school districts provide families with a wide choice for children's educational development, including traditional schools, charter schools and alternative education, in addition to an excellent selection of private educational institutions.

HOUSING

Housing is plentiful in San Joaquin County and is affordable when compared to other nearby areas. Make San Joaquin County your new home. Housing ranges from new developments to established subdivisions to stately historic districts to peaceful country living and every type of housing

San Joaquin County is a place where families can grow, learn, and experience the nature and beauty of the California landscape while benefiting from the unique opportunities - cultural, recreational, and educational - that the area provides.
